Cost-savings tools at your fingertips

We've designed two powerful tools to help reduce your out-of-pocket costs:

- "Price a medication" compares the cost of a medication at retail and mail. Simply enter the name of a medication and click "Search." You'll see how much your plan pays for the medication, along with your share of the cost—and how much you'll save by switching to mail.
- My Rx Choices® identifies lower-cost alternatives to your long-term medications. Simply choose a medication from your history (or enter the name of a new medication) and click "Search." You can discuss lower-cost options with your doctor to see if any are right for you. Members could save more than $294 a year.*

Your prescription history and out-of-pocket costs at a glance

“Prescription history” conveniently lists your mail and retail prescriptions. You’ll find the date your prescription was received, the date shipped, the number of refills remaining, and the date to request a refill. “Claims & balances” tracks your expenses for prescriptions filled at retail and mail—something you’ll find especially handy at tax time.

Resources to help you manage your health

Tap into a variety of resources on our “Health & wellness” page. You’ll find a wealth of health topics and detailed drug information (including information on side effects and adverse drug interactions), as well as our “Health toolbox” and “Health news” features—all designed to help you better manage your condition, stay informed, and protect your health.

Print forms—even a temporary ID card

At medco.com, you can print forms for ordering prescriptions and submitting claims. Most registered members can print a temporary ID card as well, helping to ensure uninterrupted use of their benefit. You can also request forms and envelopes to be sent to you by mail.

*Average annual savings calculations are projected from a study of over 8 million lowest online non-Medicare savings opportunities in 2007. Your actual savings may not reach the projected average. Savings amounts may vary based on drug prices, prescription programs in effect at the time of the savings calculation, applicable law, and pharmacist’s judgment. Sales tax, where applicable, is not included. In most cases, only those alternatives preferred by your prescription program are shown. Some or all of the alternatives may not be appropriate for you, and all will require your doctor’s approval. Not all have been reviewed by Medco’s independent Pharmacy and Therapeutics committee. Medco can earn rebates on some drugs, which may be shared with plan sponsors. No prescription change is made without a doctor’s authorization.
